

Chief Operating Officer

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

- This newly created COO role will report directly to the CEO and take on the responsibility of the front office.
- They have seen consistent growth even during two economic downturns.
- The company has grown under the nurturing leadership of the founder who puts a premium on personal and team achievements.

Your role will be to reporting directly to the CEO who has an impressive track record and will be great to work for and with.

- Provide inspirational leadership for the front office team and front office management. The front office team includes Client Development, Service Delivery, and Strategic Sourcing. Ensure the vision, mission, and core values in front office team are consistent. Manage day-to-day operations with an effective motivational style that inspires people to achieve aggressive targets with a focus on accountability.

Must have minimum of 10 years IT staffing or IT service professional services sector.